--Words from our Mayor--

Hail my friends,

PaxLair moves into its Ninth Year today.

Yesterday was the 8th Anniversary Celebration
and what a Celebration it was! Fireworks, Parade, Speeches, Awards, and a

Play about PaxLair's history! I wish to thank all who helped make the Anniversary a great success. I want to thank even more those who have lived in, traveled through, or sat in a pub in one of our cities of PaxLair.

I will remain as Mayor of PaxLair into the coming year. I am honored by the support of the citizens. I vow to continue the visions of the original PaxLair founders and commit myself to serving our current and future citizenry.

As I look back on the past years, emotion swells up in my heart and mind.

There are so many memories of people, creativity, lore, and legends. I have seen how people can go three steps farther in this Realm with simple ambitions to [roleplay]. The plays, orc parties, meetings, quests, libraries, books, and of course the people. People, whether evil or good, can bring our experience in the Realm well beyond simply seeking an item, fighting a monster or person, or even crafting a well decorated house.

So say "Hail" to the passing fisherman or beggar. You never know when you might find yourself on a creative quest of knowledge, fame, glory, or disaster. And you might just cherish that encounter for years to come.

Into the Ninth Year, Dragonspeed!
Winfield, Mayor of PaxLair

-- 8th Anniversary Recap --

Mayor Winfield opened PaxLair's 8th Anniversary with a Fight Night Tournament in PaxLair City. Eight fighters dueled for more than an hour to determine the Champion. After a grueling 5-minute final match between Merton (FwAe) and Morpheus ({X}), Merton came out victorious!

Sat, 14 Jan 06:
Orc Holiday for those members of the Kaar Barashalu and Olag Hai Orc Clans! Orc Holiday is an officially recognized special day in the City of PaxLair by means of a Mayor's decree.

The Holiday began many moons ago in the year 2000 when digging began at the ruins near the Order Tower in PaxLair by a human named Caliphate. Much to his expectations and the glee of the orcs, Caliphate found an ancient Orc Temple buried several feet below the meadow of PaxLair and also located several artifacts that are to this day on display at the PaxLair Memorial House.

Tues, 17 Jan 06:
- PaxLair Theatrical Company Presents:

The Opening Night of "History of the Spring" performed in PaxOku.

The reviews are starting to come in about the Opening of "History of the Spring", a play held tonight in PaxOku for the 8th Anniversary of PaxLair. Indications are that it was a smashing success! People were on their feet after the play and had the actors sign their Programs.

Lenora (PxL) wrote and directed the play held atop the Post Office in PaxOku to a crowd of more than 15 people.

Neo of Lothore, Jaer Steelrein and Tatania Karthina starred in the smash hit!

A Cast party followed the play at the Blue Light Tavern.
